

Back to School Issue!

Hello, and welcome to Mindscape Commons' third quarterly newsletter.

Your university library has purchased a subscription to Mindscape Commons, a database of mental health video content. The videos, many of which were filmed in 360°, are free for you and your students to use!

Videos range from 3 to 15 minutes, come with instructor guides, and can easily be embedded in your learning management systems.

Teaching concepts of poverty and unhoused populations?

This series offers a view into tent cities and temporary housing for those experiencing a range of issues from poverty, mental health issues, addiction, trauma, and discrimination

Teaching social justice issues? Immerse yourself in another person's story.

- Project Witness
- Waiting for Asylum
- Solitary Confinement
- Traveling While Black
- Another Dream

Teaching Home Assessments? Introduce students to the skills required for effective home health and safety visits.

View these videos on child protection, hazard assessment, and home visits.

Need some help figuring out how to find the right video? This 4-minute video guide breaks down the essentials on getting the most out of Mindscape.

We'll continue to deliver updates and tips in future newsletters. In the meantime, if you or your users have questions, including requests for links for a syllabus or LibGuide, please reach out. We're here to help! And... thank you.

Best,
Yomna Rahim (she/her)
Product Engagement Manager
Request a demo of Mindscape here!

Elizabeth Robey (she/her)
Publisher, Mindscape Commons

Submit your research!

